by deleting the language designated as subsection (b) in its entirety within Section 10 of the amendment and by substituting instead the following:

(b) Upon approval of its application and at its discretion, the newly-approved charter school may elect to defer opening by one (1) school year if it determines the additional times is needed for planning, implementation, and/or organization. If the newly-approved charter school elects to defer opening by one (1) school year, the school shall not receive state funding for the length of the deferral period.
